

A new boat, the Secaucus, was placed on the Hoboken Ferry this week.

The barn of Theo. N. Boas at Budd's Lake was burned last week with its contents, causing $5,000 loss.

John Brennan, a child aged four years, fell from a third-story window of its parents' residence, in Elizabeth, yesterday, and was killed.

The subject of running horse cars in East Orange, on Sunday, is again being agitated. A public meeting is to be held next Thursday evening.

A child named Edward Farmer, aged three years died in Trenton, Sunday night, from injuries received by the explosion of a kerosene lamp.

The farmers and milkmen of South Orange have held a public meeting in answer to the charges against them of selling the milk and beef of diseased cattle. They deny the charges.

The battle-flags of New Jersey, now at the Arsenal, Trenton, will be removed to the Capitol, with appropriate ceremonies. The militia and all veteran organizations of the State will participate.

The Morris Jerseyman complains that the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company has failed to strengthen their track between Madison and Newark, by which two or three miles of distance between Morristown and New York would be cut off and the Summit grade avoided.
